MY POINT OF VIEW

Good afternoon all. A warm welcome to Peter Morris and his Peterborough United side. The 'Posh' are going well this season, and today will be a very difficult game for us. However, to get where we want to go, and that is the Third Division, this is the type of game we have to win.

Doncaster

And so, after our inept display at Rochdale, I can only say that our side's display against Doncaster gave me a lot of hope for the future. I don't normally single out performances, but coupled with the great displays of our two youngsters, Mike Quinn and Dave McMullan, I feel I must say a word about the sheer work-rate and enthusiasm of George Urquhart and Bobby Hutchinson. Indeed, there wasn't a bad performance all the way through the side from Bob Ward to substitute Frank Corrigan.

In paying tribute to the players, I must also pay a big compliment to the 3,600 spectators who turned out on such an atrocious evening. I hope they feel rewarded and let's hope we can do it again today.

Soccer Skills

I have just recently received all the literature regarding the F.A. Soccer Skills Award. This is indeed one of the other commitments we will take on when our all-weather pitch and accommodation is completed. So, all you youngsters who feel you can get the awards, keep looking for a press announcement giving the starting date.

GREAT NAMES FROM THE PAST BY HAROLD ASHURST

FROM THE early days of the club we now move into the post-second World War era, to tell of a very successful team.

Although Latics had stayed in the Cheshire County League during the war years, they had the misfortune to finish bottom of the league in the first season activities were resumed, and, much to the surprise of the non-league football world, the club which had brought such credit on itself, and the Cheshire County League in the 1930's, was voted out of membership. Without a league to play in, Latics joined the Lancashire Combination and that team is still remembered with affection by those lucky enough to have watched it perform. The full strength team was: Woolley, Ball, Parkinson, Shirley, Howcroft, Finch, Brown, Taylor, Barker, North and Miller. These were all household names to the older supporters and in the next few matches, I plan to feature some of those players in my notes. Goalkeeper Harold Woolley was rated as one of the best 'keepers Latics ever had and he it was who performed heroically between the sticks when Latics won the Combination in their first season. They got off to a pretty poor start though, as did Woolley. He let in five goals as Latics lost their first match in the Combination 1-5 at home to Fleetwood.

However, the team picked themselves up and Woolley, a local pitman who lived near Springfield Park in Woodhouse Lane, became a great favourite with the crowd. He took defeat very badly. On one occasion Latics lost a cup tie at Marine later in the season. The second goal scored by Marine really killed Latics off but it was scored after a misunderstanding between Woolley and captain Jimmy Shirley. By all accounts, Shirley had told his goalkeeper to leave a cross because he would head it away. Woolley did just that, but so did Shirley, with the result that the ball flew into the net. After the game Woolley was seen by a Latics fan squatting on his haunches on his doorstep, and when the fan asked him what was wrong, the conversation went a little like this: "I should have caught that ball, shouldn't I?" inquired the lamenting 'keeper. "Never mind," said the supporter, "It couldn't be helped."

"Couldn't be helped" snapped Woolley, "If Shirley had left me to it I could have taken the ----- lace out of the thing, never mind caught it."

IN VIEW of the fact that we only play mid-week now that we are members of the Umbro Floodlit League, it was nice, last Saturday, to return to Saturday afternoon football if only for one week.

A gap in the fixtures of Altrincham Reserves enabled me to arrange a friendly away at Moss Lane. The sun was shining and the neatly kept ground of our non-league neighbours was in good condition, and it was an ideal day for football. We fielded a mixed side with experienced players like Dave Fretwell, Maurice Whittle and Tony Quinn on show together with players like Kenny Freeman and Stuart Ralph, who have been on the fringe of the team this season being given an opportunity to show their paces.

It was a fairly even game and we felt confident of victory after Jim Oliver had headed in Maurice Whittle's pinpoint cross. However, Altrincham snatched a draw with the last kick of the game to end the afternoon with honours even.

George McAllister had a fine game in the centre of defence, and Alan Harrison handled well in goal then set us flowing forward from the back, with some decisive distribution.

Team:- 1. Alan Harrison, 2. Jeff Ainsworth, 3. Kenny Freeman, 4. Brian Cunliffe, 5. George McAllister, 6. Dave Fretwell, 7. Steve Silcock, 8. Stuart Ralph, 9. Jim Oliver, 10. Tony Quinn, 11. Maurice Whittle.

FURTHER to my previous notes about the special activities to finance the Springfield Park Community Sports Facility, I am now able to supply further details of a "Supporters' Night Out" which will be organised by the Commercial Department on Wednesday, 19th November, 1980, in our own Supporters' Club at Springfield Park. Although plans for the evening are not quite finalised, we look forward to providing two quality artists, one a comedian and the other a singer, to help the evening go with a swing, a disco for the dancing enthusiasts, a game or two of bingo and the odd little bit of fund-raising fun, not to mention a good buffet supper, and all at the price of £2.50 per ticket.

You don't need to be a Supporters' Club member, to take advantage of this opportunity, so why not give yourself and your good lady a night out to remember. Because of licensing and safety requirements, only 200 tickets will be available, and these should be on sale from our Commercial Department from Monday, 20th October, 1980. To avoid disappointment, obtain your ticket early.

We are also organising a "Christmas Cracker Draw 1980" under the Lotteries' Registration held by the Wigan Athletic Development Association, and Carol, Christine and Deirdre are currently calling on local business people seeking donated prizes. The early response has been most encouraging and we are sure that, with over 100 prizes offered, at an estimated value in excess of £500, including such seasonal items as turkeys, chickens, wines, spirits, chocolates and fancy goods, our "CHRISTMAS CRACKER DRAW 1980" will be a resounding success. When the tickets are received from the printer, we will be looking to our supporters to give a hand in selling the tickets in return for a generous commission of 20%. So stand by for further announcements.

We are pleased to acknowledge the sponsoring of today's game by Aluman Limited, whose offices are located on the Haydock Industrial Estate, Haydock, near St. Helens (Telephone No. Ashton-in-Makerfield 77788). Aluman Limited are suppliers of all types of welding equipment, welding materials and industrial safety wear. We thank the firm for the interest it has shown in our club, and in particular, Mr. John Fillingham, a keen supporter of Wigan Athletic.

Today's match ball is donated by Stadia Catering Services, 21 London Road, Newcastle, Staffs. Telephone No. 0782-622237/8/9. As you probably know, Stadia Catering Services are responsible for the provision of all catering facilities available to spectators at Springfield Park.

Springfield Park, Wigan. 10th October, 1980.

Dear Readers,

I have received several letters from supporters during the past two or three days, but, unfortunately, only the letter from Mr. McKenzie can be printed, in accordance with the guide lines laid down as to what can and what cannot be reproduced.

I must add that, although it is gratifying to receive letters which are complimentary, we are not as a matter of policy looking to repeatedly sing the praises of our own activities. However, the contact from the South of England is appreciated, and, should Bruce wish to visit us at a future date, I can promise him a warm welcome.

All best wishes,

Jack Sudworth, Commercial Manager.

Dear Sirs,

As an avid programme collector, for more years than I care to remember, and thanks to a friend in the Reed Corrugated Case factory at Wigan, I have been fortunate in obtaining virtually every home programme since Wigan's admission into the Football League, plus several of the away programmes.

Having now seen a fair cross-section of this season's programmes throughout the four divisions, there is no doubt in my mind, that for informative and interesting reading, Wigan's programme is much superior to several which include magazine style insertions, such as "On Target" and "Programme Plus", etc.

I do hope you have no plans to change the format and, as long as my friend kindly continues to think of me, I'll continue to enjoy reading about Wigan's exploits.

Yours sincerely,

Bruce McKenzie.

(P.S. If any supporter has a pre-war Wigan programme that they would be prepared to exchange for a pre-war Brentford programme, I would be delighted to hear from them.

TODAY we welcome to Springfield Park for the third time the Peterborough United Football Club. Without doubt our visitors, though young in Football League years, possess a pedigree and name of the highest degree. It is a pleasure to visit their well-appointed ground, which has been graced by the presence of such talented managers as Jimmy Hagan, Jack Fairbrother, Noel Cantwell and John Barnwell and has witnessed the prolific goalscoring exploits of Terry Bly and Jim Hall.

Under Peter Morris, "The Posh" are again poised to make the trip from the Fourth Division to the Third Division of the Football League, and this year's Peterborough United side is performing equally as well on its travels as on its own ground. We can be sure that, today, our players will face a stern challenge from a club which has yet to register a win against Wigan Athletic. It is worth noting that all three previous encounters with "The Posh" have resulted in 2-1 victories for Wigan, and, in each game, a Latics player has scored from the penalty spot — Jim Fleming in the Second Round F.A. Cup tie played at Springfield Park on 20th December, 1970, in front of 17,100 spectators, and Tommy Gore in last year's home and away league fixtures.

We look forward to a game of top quality football and extend to all our visitors from Peterborough United, whether director, manager, player or supporter, a warm welcome. We wish you a safe journey home tonight and look forward to our return visit to London Road later in the season.

WRITTEN QUOTATIONS ON REQUEST

THE STAFF and committee at the Supporters' Club join in wishing our members and friends from Peterborough a very good afternoon and welcome to Springfield Park.

We also wish to extend our congratulations and sincere best wishes for the future, to Miss Denise Bond and Mr. Michael Dugdill, two of our very popular young members, who were married at Ashton-in-Makerfield last Saturday, 4th October, 1980.

I regret that we still have a few outstanding items to be finalised, before we can offer details of our two "big nights" in the club during November, but I can assure you that Wednesday evening, November 19th and Thursday evening, November 27th, are both nights that will certainly justify your interest and your support.

Another "big" event which is due at any time now, is the Supporters' Club Annual General Meeting. This meeting will almost coincide with the second anniversary of the appointment of the General Committee, and we are sincerely hoping that we shall have a good attendance in the club, when it is possible to announce the date and agenda for the meeting. With reference to the committee, I feel that it is appropriate to mention that, whilst over the years, the format of the committee has changed, the dedication and purpose of the committee has remained unaltered. That is to endeavour to build a social club, which by increased membership and by fostering various activities, can help stimulate interest that must surely reflect in the viability of the club, which in turn, means that the parent club must benefit. To maintain our programme, we do rely on your support.

To our members, our past committee members and also our present "team", my personal sincere thanks.

To maintain our first-class programme "on stage" this weekend, tonight we have John Byrnes and tomorrow (Sunday) yet another "top-liner", Tommy Rowe.

Hoping to see you.

Sincerely,
Peter Woods.

FEW PEOPLE could have envisaged such an early battle royale in Division Four, but with just over a quarter of the season played, the fact is that one win and the resultant two points, has been known to lift a club up to nine places.

Surprise packages at the top end of the table include Hartlepool United, who again have the benefit of the more than useful Bob Newton-Keith Houchen partnership up front. Then there is Crewe Alexandra, whose away form has been first class with recent wins at Stockport County and Bury, and only this week they conflicted a 5-0 thrashing on Hereford United at Gresty Road. The star of that show was former Manchester United star Peter Coyne, who hit four goals.

Elsewhere, it seems as though England Cricket captain Ian Botham has had second thoughts about his earlier decision not to play soccer this season. Having trained for only a couple of days with Scunthorpe United at the Old Show Ground, Botham was included by manager Ron Ashman in his reserve squad for the North Midlands League game with Bradford City at Valley Parade.

Halifax Town, who ended their goal famine with a mid-week three-goal blast against York City, have rescued the career of Bury striker Jimmy McIlwraith. McIlwraith had seriously considered giving up the game and was planning to take over a public house when George Kirby stepped in and signed him up. Bury, struggling in the re-election zone, have swooped to sign Burnley midfielder player Joe Jakub for a giveaway £12,000. Jakub, who was in dispute with the Turf Moor club over a new contract, has yet to pull on his boots this season.

Meanwhile, the changes continue at Northampton, where trainer Bill Harvey has left the club in the wake of the return of Bill Dodgin as manager and the demotion of Clive Walker. Northampton Town, whose County ground doubles as a venue for Northamptonshire County Cricket Club, have heeded the advice of the Football Association in banning fans from standing on the cricket pitch side of the ground. Previously a sprinkling of fans were allowed to stand on specially-laid boards at the pavilion end of the ground.

On the injury front, Stockport County are taking a battering at the moment. Their most serious casualty appears to be Tony Coyle who was carried off in a recent game with Port Vale. He sustained serious bruising and will be out for some time.

STOP PRESS: Bolton's reserve goalkeeper Dave Felgate has signed for leaders Lincoln City in a £25,000 deal. He had been on loan to "The Imps," for the last month.

OUTSIDE the ever-present problems of balancing the books, winning trophies, combatting hooliganism, and pleasing the fans, clubs fear most a loss of status. That applies whatever the division in which a club operates. It is equally true that having enjoyed First Division status in the Football League, or having fought their way through to that level of competition, the "top" clubs are loathe to introduce any changes which might make it easier for them to be moved down the league ladder. Likewise, clubs in the Fourth Division fight tooth and nail to avoid the drop into non-league football, while ambitious non-league clubs are constantly frustrated by their inability to break down what they claim is "The Old Pals' Act". Faced with increasing costs and declining attendances, clubs must take some action to stimulate interest, satisfy ambition, yet still protect the "quality" status of individual members of the Football League.

Your writer would suggest that eight new members be introduced into the Football League, to give one hundred clubs participating in league competition. He would further propose that the leagues be organised to give a Premier League, a First Division North, a First Division South, a Second Division North and a Second Division South, each with twenty member clubs. The date for the implementation of the change could be fixed twelve months in advance. Four First Division clubs would need to be relegated to the First Divisions North and South, and be replaced by two clubs promoted from the existing Second Division, to give the new "Premier" league its initial membership of twenty clubs. For every other club at present in the Football League, there would be a sorting out process leading to their achieving an immediate improvement in named status as regionalised First and Second Division clubs. Thereafter, a promotion and relegation structure could be adopted not only within the Football League, but also between the Football League and the Alliance Premier League. Fewer fixtures would aid the top clubs, the need to play fewer mid-week games would reduce the strain on the fans' pockets, by promoting "champions" only from each division and by consequently reducing the number of teams relegated or forced to apply for re-election in any one year, quality and stability would be more easily maintained. Regionalisation, covering eighty per cent of the membership, would produce more "derbies" and a consequent increase in revenue, not to mention the benefits it would bring to both club and fan in terms of reducing the cost of playing and supporting away from home.

There would be no relegation from the Fourth Division of the Football League at the time of reorganisation. The eight additional clubs would be drawn from the Alliance Premier League, with which organisation the Football League would need to frequently liaise in the period prior to reorganisation. Such a dramatic opportunity for improvement in status ought to satisfy even the most disillusioned of potential Football League hopefuls. Automatic promotion and relegation between the Football League and the Alliance Premier League would then follow in due course.

THE ABOVE IS NOT AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE WIGAN ATHLETIC FOOTBALL CLUB, BUT IS INTRODUCED FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION, DISCUSSION AND COMMENT.

The Chairman's Column

WE ARE pleased to welcome Peterborough United Football Club to Springfield Park this afternoon. We look forward to an enjoyable game of football between two sides which on their day can produce exciting and stimulating entertainment.

I cannot let last week's headlines and my programme comments go by without analysing the subsequent feeling in the club. Prior to my comments regarding the players in Monday evening's "Post and Chronicle", Ian McNeill had, on the Monday morning, already said what he had to say and what he thought of the team's performance at Rochdale to his players behind locked doors. He left no stone unturned and got his message through in no uncertain manner. At this time, Ian McNeill was totally unaware of what was to follow in the local press. I feel very much for the punter who pays his cash, and, believe me, so does our manager. But Ian is slightly cautious and indeed sometimes suspicious of sensational headlines (and, do remember, he was at one time sacked from the Wigan job, and newspaper articles were indeed at the hub of the trouble).

Ian McNeill invited me into the dressing room before our match with Doncaster Rovers, just to reassure his players that, besides his being a players' manager, I am very much a players' chairman. I feel I said the right things, and, one way or another, between Ian and myself, we got exactly the right response from our players.

Our manager knows, and his players know, that I am one hundred per cent behind them. They also know what I expect from them, and that is total commitment to Wigan Athletic. They will have bad times, I know, but as long as they give the club, and you, our magnificent supporters, their unyielding effort at all times, then this week, in the long run, will have provided a worthwhile exercise.

I would like to make particular mention of young Mike Quinn's performance on Wednesday evening. His three goals were beautifully taken, and, if he can maintain the early promise which he is showing, I predict a great future for the lad. He has shown great character in overcoming a close-season weight problem, and we were absolutely delighted to present him with the match ball autographed by both teams, in recognition of his first hat-trick in a Football League game. Mike provided the finishing thrust to round off a magnificent fighting display by the whole Wigan team, to give everyone fresh heart for the future. It is obvious that we have plenty of good players with obvious ability at the club, and if their commitment is right, and they go out with their sleeves rolled up, as they did against the high-flying Doncaster side, there will be no future need for me to vent my feelings in public.

Enjoy today's game.
Yours sincerely,

Freddie Pye.
